

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A method, apparatus, system, article of manufacture, etc. of determining response times for various computing segments is provided in accordance with one or more embodiments of the invention. Accordingly, the following segments in the execution of a computer program may be directly measured, computed, determined, or derived: total response time, client segment compute time, network segment trivial response time, network segment response time, server segment response time, and think time response time.

10 G&C 30695.19-US-U1

09741660-44300

"Express Mail" mailing label number E154070315
Date of Deposit NOVEMBER 13 2008
I hereby certify that this paper or fee is being deposited with the United States Postal Service "Express Mail" service under 37 CFR 1.10-4b the date indicated above and is addressed to:
Assistant Commissioner for Patents, Washington, DC 20590
ISAHELL OGAITA
ISAHELL OGAITA